The four elements- earth, air, water, and fire.... Nothing is as it seems when the elements are involved. Step inside this magical collection by four talented authors as they sweep you away....

Birthright by Jean Johnson is the story of two twins and the quest to see who is firstborn. Arasa has uncovered a legendary journey that she and her twin, Kalasa, must undertake. Arasa is accompanied by a mage, Elrik, who provided her aid and the use of his Truth Stone. But what truths will they uncover in their quest?

Jean Johnson is quickly becoming a must read author for me! Her sweeping tale of magic and myths is both powerful and intense. Jean Johnson takes a more subtle approach to the theme of the earth elemental and provides a nice contrast to the first story in ELEMENTAL MAGIC. The characters of Arasa and Elrik are well developed as both are learning what it means to be a leader.

ELEMENTAL MAGIC is an exciting blend of fantasy and romance. Fans of the fantasy genre will appreciate the different aspects these four exceptional authors bring to the individual elements. ELEMENTAL MAGIC is superbly done as this is one anthology that should please fantasy fans.
