

“Elemental Magic - Birthright”

Rated: 3.5 out of 5 - An excellent Read

Elemental Magic is an anthology comprising stories that uses the four elements – air, earth, water and fire. The stories contained in this anthology are Bargain with the Wind by Sharon Shinn, Birthright by Jean Johnson, Unmasking by Carol Berg and Huntress Moon by Rebecca York.

My favorite stories within this anthology were Ms Johnson’s and Ms Berg’s. In Birthright we have a realistic short story about a princess seeking the answer to the question of who was born first – her or her twin sister. Though some of the situations may seem unbelievable Ms Johnson makes them believable. The erotic thread throughout this story added to my reading pleasure.

Synopsis:

The stories in this anthology are intriguing. They will hold readers attention, some more than others.
