November 2007

Fantasy Anthology

Air, Earth, Water, and Fire....

Do the elements have the power to bring lovers together? Four authors explore the themes of Air, Earth, Fire and Water to create stories of romance and adventure.

Birthright - Jean Johnson

Birthright is the story of two princesses, Kalasa and Arasa. Born together, they must find out who should have been born first, the true heir to their father. A barefoot, weaponless pilgrimage through the desert will provide an answer that may destroy their family. Author Jean Johnson is a strong new voice in romantic fantasy.

ELEMENTAL MAGIC presents not only romance, but also four interesting worlds and unusual, exciting adventures. These are great holiday reading.
