The long awaited finale in the Sons of Destiny Saga.....

Morganen has finally finished bringing together his brothers and their destined brides; now he can finally claim the woman he has been watching and longing after for two long years. Nervous and excited he opens the portal, pulls Hope through and is stunned to find out that she is not the person he thought she was. Now Morg has to adjust his thinking and get to know his destined bride before opposing forces tear them apart.

The Mage by Jean Johnson is a more than fitting ending to this action-packed series. Ms. Johnson wove this world and all of the characters so well that there is hardly any break as each story flows seamlessly into the next. I love her bold yet sensitive characters, the balance of the personalities (not everyone can be alpha you know) and most of all her sense of humor and fun (chocolate really is the food of the Gods in this one!!!). Read it, even in these tough economic times it's well worth the splurge.
